

CH&Co. prepares the ground for further growth with Catherine Joly as Global Chief Operating Officer

New York, 25th June 2018

Catherine Joly's arrival at Financial services specialist CH&Co. is a new step in the firm's ambition to be the preferred global management consulting partner for financial services of today and tomorrow. Her role will consist in aligning the organization with international growth perspectives, developing talents and fostering operational efficiency across all offices. Her recruitment will also enable the firm to reinforce CH&Co.'s innovation capabilities within the Fintech ecosystem and the CH Alliance.

Operating from New York as of 1st April, Catherine will regularly be present in CH&Co.'s various offices. She has direct management of Human Resources, Operations and IT and reports to CEO level in liaison with the firm's partners worldwide.

Before joining CH&Co., Catherine, aged 43, graduated from Hautes Etudes Commerciales (HEC) in France in 1997 and started her career as management consultant. She spent fifteen years from 1997 to 2012 at several top-level management consulting firms in London and Paris (Accenture, Ernst&Young, Altedia, Alixio) specializing in people, organization and change projects. For the past five years, she successfully managed the digital transformation of leading French media group « Le Monde » as Group Head of Human Resources, Legal and General Services from 2012 to 2016, and as Chief Executive Officer of top French news magazine « Le Nouvel Observateur » from 2016 to 2017.

« Her 20 year experience in change management, operations and process improvement will be an asset to enable CH & Co.'s strategy and achieve our growth ambition » states Stéphane Eyraud, CEO of CH&Co.
